

Introduction:

God reveals Himself in two ways:

1) _____ Revelation:

-God reveals Himself through nature

-Psalm 19:1; Romans 1:19-20

-Doesn't tell us about Jesus or how to be saved

2) _____ Revelation

-God reveals Himself through His Word,

*Written Word= _____

*Word Incarnate= _____

God's attributes can be divided into two categories:

1) Communicable attributes (those we can share):

-Examples:

2) Incommunicable attributes (those unique to God):

-Examples:

Things to remember about God's attributes:

1) All of these attributes are equally true of each person of the Trinity.

2) All of these attributes have always been a part of who God is, and they always will be.

3) All of these attributes are connected or intertwined in some way.

Introduction:

God reveals Himself in two ways:

1) Natural Revelation:

-God reveals Himself through nature

-Psalm 19:1; Romans 1:19-20

-Doesn't tell us about Jesus or how to be saved

2) Special Revelation

-God reveals Himself through His Word,

*Written Word= the Bible

*Word Incarnate=Jesus Christ

God's attributes can be divided into two categories:

1) Communicable attributes (those we can share):

-Examples: love, faithfulness, truthfulness, patience, mercy, goodness

2) Incommunicable attributes (those unique to God):

-Examples: sovereignty, immutability, omniscience, omnipotence,
omnipresence, eternity

Things to remember about God's attributes:

1) All of these attributes are equally true of each person of the Trinity.

2) All of these attributes have always been a part of who God is, and they always will be.

3) All of these attributes are connected or intertwined in some way.