

God is Wise:

According to Romans 11:33, God has both _____ and _____.

What is the difference between knowledge and wisdom?

God's choices are always going to bring about the best _____ in any situation.

How does our idea of the best outcome often differ from God's?

"With God are wisdom and might."
~Job 12:13~

God exhibits His wisdom in many ways:

1) In creation

-Proverbs 3:19-20

-How does creation reveal God's wisdom?

2) In providence

-Romans 8:28

-How does God reveal His wisdom through providence?

3) In salvation

-How does the plan of salvation reveal God's wisdom?

Without Christ,
people are just clever fools.

~Steven Lawson~

Implications of God's Wisdom:

- 1) Because God is wise, we can trust Him to do what is best for us.
- 2) Without Christ, no one can truly be wise (Col. 2:3; Psalm 111:10).
- 3) God is willing to share His wisdom with us (James 1:5; Prov. 2:6).

God is Wise:

According to Romans 11:33, God has both knowledge and wisdom.

What is the difference between knowledge and wisdom?

-Knowledge=knowing the facts

-Wisdom=using the facts that you have to make the best decision in a situation

God's choices are always going to bring about the best outcome in any situation.

How does our idea of the best outcome often differ from God's?

-We want what will make us happy, healthy, or wealthy.

-God will always do what will bring Him the most glory and His people the greatest good.

“With God are wisdom and might.”

~Job 12:13~

God exhibits His wisdom in many ways:

1) In creation

-Proverbs 3:19-20

-How does creation reveal God's wisdom?

*God chose the best methods for creation. The intricacy of creation should point to a Creator. God also created things in the perfect order.

2) In providence

-Romans 8:28

-How does God reveal His wisdom through providence?

*Only a wise God could organize all events of human history in just the right way to bring His plan to completion

3) In salvation

-How does the plan of salvation reveal God's wisdom?

*The plan of salvation seems foolish to us, but was the best way to save man and bring the most glory to God. Jesus was also the only adequate sacrifice.

Without Christ,
people are just
clever fools.

~Steven Lawson~

Implications of God's Wisdom:

- 1) Because God is wise, we can trust Him to do what is best for us.
- 2) Without Christ, no one can truly be wise (Col. 2:3; Psalm 111:10).
- 3) God is willing to share His wisdom with us (James 1:5; Prov. 2:6).