Life, family, home, salvation, peace, joy, etc.

How would you respond to someone who doubts God's goodness because of the evil they see around them?

God is good, but people chose to rebel against His goodness. He created a good world. He never intended the evil that exists around us. To remove all the evil, He would have to remove all the evil people (which is every one of us), or He would have to take away people's freedom of choice.

grace of goodness."
